Can't Live on Pensions, Old Carabaos Complain

"We're little old men, who have had our day, bah, bah, bah!"

"We cannot live on retirement pay, bah, bah, bah!"

"Gentlemen officers out on our own,

"We'll even sell by the telephone . . ."

This little song sung by retired officers looking for influence jobs with defense factories was part of a musical spoof on the armed forces performed last night by the Military Order of the Carabao.

The Carabaos, veterans of Philippine service, rambled from budget problems to inter-service rivalry to the Russian lead in missiles in their skit.

Army Chief of Staff: "My Army's bigger than your Air Force."

Air Force Chief of Staff (haughtily): "We hope to get a plane in the next budget."

King of Inner Pentagonia: "You'll enjoy being in a single service." New uniforms, better food, missiles that work . . ."

Army Chief of Staff: "That's no fun. We couldn't even argue over who gets which missile."

Pentagon Court Jester: "What do the stars say, Royal Astrologer?"

Pentagon Astrologer: "The stars are speaking Russian, of course . . ."

The skit was performed at the Willard before the Nation's top military brass. The guest list included Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; Gen. David M. Shoup, Marine Corps Commandant; Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force Chief of Staff, and Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, Chief of Naval Operations.

Others on the guest list were Philippine Ambassador Carlos Romulo, House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Texas) and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.). Rep. Paul Kilday (D-Tex.) and Dr. William J. G. Davis, of 2805 29th pl. nw., received the Carabao Bell for service to the armed forces. Col. Jean W. Moreau (USMC-ret.) was inducted as Grand Paramount Carabao.
